

Fundamentals of Drawing

4 week course

Tuesdays 19:00-21:30

Starts 30th June 2026

Course overview

This course explores universal artistic principles that form the foundation of art and apply across all visual disciplines. Over four weeks, participants will engage in an in-depth study of still life composition using geometric solids, plaster casts, and other objects selected to match individual skill levels. Suitable for artists of all experience levels.

Key topics addressed in this course:

- Overview of drawing materials
- Understanding the concept of a preliminary sketch
- Exploring composition in art
- Principles of drawing: line and tone
- Understanding tonal relationships
- Quality of edges
- Comparative measuring
- Enhancing observational skills
- Techniques for shading and modelling
- The process of artistic selection

This course is ideal for anyone looking to develop their drawing skills. Beginners and artists of all skill level are welcome. This course is designed to serve as an introduction to other courses at CAS. It is recommended to complete this course before enrolling in any other courses.

Graduates of the previous Fundamentals of Drawing course will be encouraged to take on more advanced and challenging drawing projects.

All materials are provided.
